Subject Increase of pay from Rs 100 to Rs 150 - to Mr. M. Krishna Iyengar, Public Prosecutor, Mysore Dn.

Letter No 1383/4 dated 9th January 1904 from the Dt and Sessions Judge, ~~Hobbaga~~ Mysore Division, forwarding for favourable Consideration an application from Mr. M. Krishnaiyengar, Public Prosecutor Mysore Division, praying that his pay may be raised to ~~Rs 150~~ Rs 150/-.

Mr Krishnaiyengar states that before the establishment of the Hassan Sessions Court in October 1900, the pay of the Public Prosecutor, Mysore Division, was Rs 150/- In Govt Progs: No 5867-76 dated 27th October 1900, J.635 the Hassan Sessions Court was established and it was directed that as the work of the Public Prosecutors of the Mysore and Shimoga Divisions would would be materially reduced by the transfer of the work of the Hassan and Kadur Districts respectively to the Public Prosecutor, Hassan Dn. their pay be reduced from Rs 150 to Rs 100 per mensem

Mr Krishniengar now prays that as the reason for the continuance of reduced pay has ceased to exist owing to the abolition of the Hassan Sessions Court, his pay may be increased to Rs 150/- with effect from the 9th January 1903, the date of the retrans- fer of Hassan Sessions work to Mysore Dn.

Assistant Secretary's remarks on the letter:-

"... the application should, I think, have come thro' the Dt Magte & not the Dt Judge."

(Sd) K.S.C. 13/1/04.

Req the appl. be ret. to be sent thro' the District Magte

The papers relating to Mr Krishniengar's appointment as Public Prosecutor were submitted to the Dewan on 8/1/04.

On the merits, too, the application requires dismissing. As against the additional work thrown on the Public Prosecutor by Re-attachment of Hassan to the Regency, there is the relief afforded by the appointment of a separate Prosecutor to conduct prosecutions before the Asstt Sessions Judge of Hassan.

In my opinion, there is now no need to restore the old pay. In these days, 100 Rs is a liberal enough remuneration even granting that there has been a slight increase of work owing to the abolition of the Hassan Sessions Court. If Mysore is favorably considered Shivappa will come forward next.

I would keep a short order that Govt are not prepared to restore the old scale of pay.

To

H. V. Nanjundayya Esq M.A. M.L
Secretary Govt General & Revenue Departments.

Sir

I beg you will kindly lay the following before the Government for their kind and favourable consideration.

Before the establishment of the Hassan Sessions Court in October 1900 the pay of the Public Prosecutor of the Mysore Division was Rs 150 per mensem. On the formation of a Sessions Court at Hassan Government in their Proceedings No 5867-76 J 639 dated 27th October 1900 directed "that as the work of the Public Prosecutors of Mysore and Shimoga will be materially reduced by the transfer of the work of Hassan and Kadur respectively to the Public Prosecutor Hassan Division, their pay be reduced from Rs 150 to Rs 100 per mensem". Now that the Sessions Court at Hassan has been abolished and the work of Hassan retransferred to the Public Prosecutor Mysore, the reason for the continuance of reduced pay has ceased to exist. The pay of the Public Prosecutor was always Rs 150 per mensem even when Deputy Commissioners of Districts were exercising enhanced powers under section 36 of the old Criminal Procedure Code corresponding with those of the Assistant Sessions Judges at the present day. The salary of the Public Prosecutor Bangalore is Rs 150 per mensem. The restoration of the old pay to the Public Prosecutor Mysore while bringing him in point of pay into line with the Public Prosecutor of Bangalore and Munsiffs and Amildars of the last Grade, will be not only commensurate with the status he holds as a responsible Government Law officer but also an adequate remuneration for the increased work which has devolved upon him. While the Status of Munsiffs have been improved, it will be felt to be a misfortune if the Public Prosecutor of Mysore should not have the old pay which always attached to his post, except during the existence of the Sessions Court at Hassan. I therefore most respectfully pray that the Government may be graciously pleased to raise my pay to Rs 150 per mensem with effect from the 9th January 1903, the date of the retransfer of Hassan Sessions work to me.

I have the honor to be

Sir

Your most obedient Servant.
